

the Getaway People, Limo

Come on in from the rain now baby, come sail away with me
Who's been there to take care of you lately? So put your trust in me
Don't cry those tears anymore, accentuate the positive
You'll be fine 'cause I know for sure, eradicate the negative
In the fear of the night put your spirit alive
Take a ride...

In my Limousine

Room to breathe Velvet ease now baby, a mobile sanctuary
Summertime, summer breeze so hazy, only I can set you free
No more pain in motel beds, you don't have to run
No more shady shadows from the past, nothing left undone

Let your soul come alive with the will to survive
Take a ride...

In my Limousine

Take a ride...

In my Limousine
