The Goo Goo Dolls, I'm Awake Now

I've been where the river ran I'm drownin' in a sunless sea Sleep has helped me find my end You promised me you'd set me free

Don't fall asleep to dream

A banshee's at my window pane There's an angel at my feet

Don't fall asleep to dream

I'm awake now (You can't touch me, I won't sleep no more) Awake now

In the corner of my mind Where he sits and waits for me There's a wall of confusion building And the sky begins to bleed on me

Don't fall asleep to dream

I'm looking for a way out now Peace of mind is all I need

Don't fall asleep to dream

I'm awake now
(You can't touch me, I won't sleep no more)
Awake now
(You can't touch me, I won't sleep no more)
Awake now
(You can't touch me, I won't sleep no more)
Awake now

Awake now Awake now Awake now
