

The Good, The Bad & The Queen, Nature Spring

Over lord hills bridge we must go

Where the hearts burn at night and the guns unload
Oceanographers are charting the rise of the seas
Today is a submarine
Setting course to the land under me

Nature springs are caught in a war
The imperious demands are the local law
It is dragging us down to the emperor's gate

Everyone is a submarine
Looking for a dream far away
