

The Jammy Dodgers, Will You?

everyone is pissed everyone is sick of this but no one knows hat to do are you read? am i read? you can trust me can I trust you? there are no easy answers we could chase our tails forever there is no guarantee that fighting makes it better but I'm so sick of defeat sick of people saying they can't be beat that might be right that might be true but I've gotta do something what about you? will you cross that line when it's time!
