

The Jets, Anytime

anytime now
you'll be my love
i know suddenly
i'll see your love will show reading between the lines and i have seen the signs in your eyes
it may take you by surprise

anytime soon
you'll turn my way
anytime now
you'll learn to say
it's me you love
you'll know that i'm the one who'll be there anytime...

chorus:
and baby it's now
the night will break
i'll wait, i gotta give
the sun, the time to wake and if the night grows long i will just sing this song it will come true you wait and see anytime (anytime) anytime (anytime) we're gonna be

reading between the lines
and i have seen the signs in your eyes

anytime now
you'll learn to say
you'll know that i'm the one

refrain 2:
and baby it's now
the sky will break
and the night grows long
it will come true
you wait and see

anytime
tell me you care
somehow, somewhere
you'll love just me...
