

The Katies, Drowner

(verse)

it's the quick one wonder the never gonna blunder the way she pulls my eyes away with a 10 cent thunder it's the happy go lucky the never gonna touch me it's the tall glass of nothing that makes you wanna cut me it's the sally hates jimmy and the polka dot Timmy and everything that makes you feel like A copper penny

(chorus)

and you could be a life beat and I could be a drowner Drowning in your sunset baked in baby powder
You could be everything I need you to.

(verse)

It's the silly disenchanted from your other distant planet
It's the way she smiles and the way I take it for granted
It's the shock trip stall in the back of the car
And the falling of star..
My God, I used to be so good..
