

The Kid LAROI, Still Chose You (ft. Mustard)

I can see your face, see the light in your eyes
I can see the change, feel the heat of the fire
If you can feel the pain, then you know you're alive
Both feet on the line, by any means, I will

(Mustard on the beat, ho!)

Here i am
Here i am
Here i am
I know i said i wouldn't
But i fell in love again
I just pray that you don't do me like other ones did

All of these hoes and i still chose you
With all that i want and i still want you
I can;t believe tat i am trippin' on you
Cause that;s what i promised i was never gon' do
All of these hoes and i still chose you
With all that i want and i still want you
I can;t believe tat i am trippin' on you
Cause that;s what i promised i was never gon' do
