

The Killers, Runaway Horses (ft. Phoebe Bridgers)

small town girl
coca cola grin
Honeysuckle skin
Born beneath the ready sign of a strawberry moon
Small town girl
Show up for her friends
Crazy about The Bends
I was tehere when she first put away childishthings

We had spring in our heels
Unwavering forces
Headfirst into the unknow
Like runaway horses in a fever till the end
And every step is a sliver prayer in the face
Od a hard wind
