The Kooks, Shine On

Safety pins holding up the things That make you mine About your hair you needn't care You look beautiful all the time

Shine shine on Yes Oh won't you shine shine on

Your magazines
People at the seams
But you still read
I must admit
I don't believe in it
But i see how you get sucked in

Shine shine shine on Yes Oh won't you shine shine on Shalalala

Shine shine shine on Yes Oh won't you shine shine on

Because you're not done
Why do you bite the hand that feeds you
Why do you?
Why do you bite the hand that feeds

Shine shine shine on Yes Oh won't you shine shine on Shalalala

Shine shine on Yes Oh won't you shine shine on

Safety pins holding up the things That make you mine About your hair you needn't care You look beautiful all of the time
