

The Lylas, Come Back

Wrote you a letter,
Didn't wanna see your eyes
Was gonna hold on to my feelings no matter who's wrong or right
When I said I'm leaving, I didn't realize,
That a life full of loving is what I left behind.

I hope that you never give up on me
Is this still the way
Can't go back before my dark is dead
The day you walked away

Since you left I can't breathe
I was wrong baby come back to me
The moment you went away I could see
That I lost the greatest part of me ohhh
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.

I miss the way you hold me
In the middle of the night
The things you showed me
Underneath the moon light.
I never let you know
That I lost my way
I could I even know it
My pride was in the way

I hope that you never give up on me
Is this still the way
Can't go back before my dark is dead
The day you walked away

Since you left I can't breathe
I was wrong baby come back to me
The moment you went away I could see
That I lost the greatest part of me ohhh
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.

I'm not the kind to change my mind
And swallow my pride
But I'm not too pride to stay
Everyday he's been away
Is unbearable for me
'Cause without you I can't breathe

Since you left I can't breathe
I was wrong baby come back to me
The moment you went away I could see
That I lost the greatest part of me ohhh
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.
Come back to, come back to me
Come back to me
I can't breathe.
