

The Mission, Tower Of Strength

You raise me up when I'm on the floor
You see me through when I'm lonely and scared
And I'm feeling true to the written word
And you're true to me but still I need more
It would tear me apart to feel no-one ever cared

For me
For me
Me
You are a tower of strength
To me

You stand firm and proud when the wind blows in your face
And when the sun shines in your eyes you just turn your head away

To me
To me
Me
You are a tower of strength
To me

You rescue me, you are my faith, my hope, my liberty
And when there's darkness all around
You shine bright for me, you are a guiding light

To me
To me
Me
You are a tower of strength
To me

You are all passion and heart when I lay in your embrace
And heaven is in your kiss, salvation lies just a touch away

To me
To me
Me
You are a tower of strength
To me
