

The Mitch Hansen Band, Stay With Me

Can't you see my heart is heavy
Just because I know you're leaving
Sometimes I wish you could read my mind
Look at me I'm always lost,
But I am found and I can't believe it
There is just one more thing I have to ask
Stay with me for a while
Stay with me and I'll smile
Never leave and you'll see
Stay with me, will you please?
Drowning in a topaz sea and
Who knew death could be comforting
The blackness of the past is so far away
I see you and then it hits me
It's no wonder you eclipse me
Everything I wanted has come true
And so our paths have crossed
The lion and the lamb
Please tell me you'll never leave me
You're part of who I am
