

The Monkees, Goldilocks Sometime

Smiling a painted smile for awhile
Ragidy Ann and I walk along
Under the painted sky
Funny how time is flying

Alice in Wonderland
Would you mind
If I just hold your hand for awhile
Maybe you'll understand when I say

Hello Cinderella
I believe they're playing our song
It certainly has been lovely
But I've got to be getting along

So Goldilocks for a while
Would you mind
Smiling your perfect smile
You and I walking the painted road
Going where time won't follow

Yes Little Red Riding Hood
Isn't it perfectly understood
When I say
Living a storybook is better than
Waiting for tomorrow
