

The Monkees, The Poster

By David Jones and Steve Pitts

"The circus is coming to town." it said on the poster.
"Get your tickets now, before it's too late."
A dancing bear and a circus clown it's so funny.
I can't wait to see everything there.

I feel like I'm already there.
I must see her fly through the air.

Horse running 'round and 'round in a circle.
I can't wait to see everything there.
I wonder if it's just like they say on the poster.
If it is I know I will be there.

I feel like I'm already there.
I must see her fly through the air.
I feel like I'm already there.
I must see her fly through the air.
