

The Monkees, You're So Good

If you were an apple
I would take a bite
If you were a lemon
I would squeeze ya tight

You're so good I've got to have you
You're so good that nothin' else matters
You're so good, you're so good, you're so good for me

If you were a penny
You'd be good as gold
Now if you were a snowball
I would love ya cold

'Cause you're so good I've got to got to have you
You're so good that nothin' else matters
You're so good, you're so good, you're so good for me

If you were a candle
I would light your fire
If you were hot labour
I would never tire

'Cause you're so good I've got to got to have you
You're so good that nothin' else matters
You're so good, you're so good, you're so good, you're so good for me
You're so good for me
You're so good, you're so good, you're so good for me
