

The Perishers, Hope You'll Be Missing Me (like I Will Miss You)

You helped them to kill me
That's all that I'm willing to say
You no longer thrill me
All you do now is stand in my way
All they say makes me feel just as safe
I've lost everything that I own
All they say makes me feel awefully blue and alone
I wrote us a song, you weren't singing along
But I hope you'll be missing me too
I held onto too long, I did everything wrong
But I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I wouldn't say I've moved on
I wouldn't say I'm close to ok
Or that you no longer feel me
Or no longer stand in my way
I'm not too proud to admit to you now
That I'm still nothing more than a wreck
I do intend not to pretend til the end
I wrote us a song, you weren't singing along
But I hope you'll be missing me too
I held onto too long, I did everything wrong
But I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
I hope you'll be missing me like I will miss you
