

The Pigeon Detectives, I'm A Liar

I can't help thinking of you, since you came into view, but i've tried.
All the boys do the same, girl you drive them insane with desire.
'Cause like a bird in my hands, it will all go as planned, I'm a liar.

I can't help thinking of you, since you came into view
But I've tried...

bababa badaba
bababa badaba

I only came here, 'cause I hear that you're drinking, darling.

bababa badaba
bababa badaba

I only came here, 'cause I hear that you're drinking, darling.

Although I don't know your name, well I could love you just the same, for tonight.
And like a flash in your pendle I will take what I can, if that's alright.

I still don't know how I feel, the words I use, the words I steel, I'm a liar

I can't help thinking of you, since you came into view, but I've tried.
