

The Ramones, Apeman Hop

He's got so many problems You can count them one by one
He's a filthy, stupid apeman He never has any fun
He lives in the jungle in a cave by a hill Plays an old loud drum
He's primitive, barely human

Apeman hop, apeman hop

Paint the face of a demon, glowing by the fire light Hoppin' like an elephant
Thunderin' like me tonight He's the world's worst recycler
The iceman comes a lot He's the devil's apprentice He's a prehistoric man

Apeman hop, apeman hop

At night he's gonna sacrifice his beloved apeman girl
Tie her to the alter, pull out her heart and eat her flesh

Apeman hop, apeman hop, apeman hop, apeman hop
