The Rasmus, Live Forever

Was it an angel That knocked on my door Or was it the wind? Wasn't I sleeping Lost in a dream Or was it you? Ohhh

We swam in the fountains Beneath the northern stars We cried from the laughter And died in each others arms Remember and live forever Remember to live for love

I got back my letters Ages ago Your address unknown I passed a stranger Who had your eyes Or was it you? Ohhh

We ran through the graveyard To catch the midnight sun We danced drunk and naked Until the summer was gone* Remember and live forever Remember to live for love Remember to live for love

To live for love
