The Rasmus, Lucifer's Angel

Behind those eyes lies the truth and grief Behind those beautiful smiles I've seen tragedy The flawless skin hides the secrets within Silent forces that secretly ignite your sins

Fly away, fly away
From the torch of blame
They haunt you
The Lucifer's Angels
Never lived, you never died
Your life has been denied
They call you
The Lucifer's Angel

Beyond these clouds you can hide all your tears Beyond this world you'll be safe from their wicked fears And in their hearts they fear your demands You know their minds won't accept you, they'll never understand

Fly away, fly away
From the torch of blame
They haunt you
The Lucifer's Angels
Never lived, you never died
Your life has been denied
They call you
The Lucifer's Angel

On your own I know you can make it Truth or bone. I know you can shake it Survive alone I know you can take it

Fly away, fly away
From the torch of blame
They haunt you
Lucifer's Angels
You never lived, you never died
Your life has been denied
They call you
Lucifer's Angel

Fly away, fly away Run away, run away Hide away, hide away Lucifer's Angel (x3)
