

The Rasmus, Lucifer's Angels

Behind those eyes lies the truth and the grief
Behind those beautiful smiles I've seen tragedy
The fallen? skin hides the secrets within
The silent forces that secretly ignite your sins
Fly away, fly away
From the darkened blade?
They haunt you
Lucifer's Angels
You never lived, you never die
Your life has been denied
They call you
Lucifer's Angel
Beyond these clouds you can hide all your tears
Beyond this world you'll be safe from their wicked fears
And in their hearts they fear your demands
You know their minds won't accept you, they'll never understand
[Chorus]
On your own I know you can make it
You'll go far? I know you can shake it
Survive alone I know you can take it
[chorus]
Fly away, fly away
Run away, run away
Hide away, hide away
Lucifer's Angel
