The Rasmus, Night after night (Out Of Shadows)

Heaven sent to you, to bring the answer
Heaven sent to you, to cure this cancer
For a moment I'm beating vultures
For a moment the world in my hands
Like an angel who came
Everytime when I pray
Guiding me in my dreams
Watching me when I sleep
Like an angel who came
Everytime when I scream
Time after time I lose again
Night after night I wake up shaking
'Cause my world is breaking
Fool enough to fall again
Night after night I wake up crying
'Cause I feel like dying
Still disconnected and unprotected
Still am haunted but unwanted
For a moment unbreakable stars
For a moment you stayed in my arms
Like an angel who came
Everytime when I pray
Guiding me in my dreams
Watching me when I sleep
Like an angel who came
Everytime when I scream
Time after time I lose again
Night after night I wake up shaking
'Cause my world is breaking
Fool enough to fall again
Night after night I wake up crying
'Cause I feel like dying
Time after time I lose again
Night after night I wake up shaking
'Cause my world is breaking
Fool enough to fall again [Fool enough to fall again]
Night after night I wake up crying
'Cause I feel like dying
