

The Rasmus, Wicked Moments

I've got my moments, when I feel like...
I should be doing something else, yeah.
The voice of conscience says it ain't right.
With pleasure I would deal with somebody else...

I've got my wicked moments.

I play wicked games, I like wicked things like...
I'm not the only one, who thinks, that it's funny, yeah.
To have my moments, when I feel like...
I steel sunglasses, if the weather is sunny.
