THE ROOKLES, I Follow You Girl

I follow you girl
You meant the world
With your swollen pockets of pearls
I'm still wishing you well

I follow you girl
I think it's ok
When you cast your spell on me
I was blinded, couldn't see anything

My heart's full of tears
Running out of time
Searching for love
I have time
To feel fine

I follow you girl
You meant the world
I know you're the one I deserve
I hope you can feel my hurt

I follow you girl
I think it's ok
Dealing up with devil in hell
Although I love your cast spell

I follow you girl
I follow you girl
I follow you girl
I think it's ok
