

The Simpsons, Cool

Homer:

Dad, that will never work. If you want to make your move, you got to play it...cool.

Now what you gotta do

If you wanna get a kiss

Is act real smooth

And make your move like this:

Abe:

Oh, I see!

So if I take your advice

And make your patented move,

Then my chances for love

Will slightly improve?

Homer:

Now what's that rule?

Abe:

Play it cool.
