

The Sixpounder, Ten Thousand Teenage Killing M

This is a war
This is a war!

Corruption
Disruption
Now everybody knows your name

Denying
And lying
You think you know everything

I never understood the need to breed
But now I know it's what the nation needs
The production
Then training all it's warrior ants

You'll be called a patriot you know
For everything that you're doing
Not thinking
Not questioning
Just following every order

They will never let you
Be yourself again
All they do is change you
Into what they need
You won't have a name
Just a number
Ten thousand teenage
Killing machines

Some people are willing
Some people are weak
Yet we are losing this battle
But we mustn't lose this war

Make momma proud
Make daddy smile
Or big brother envy you
And it all seems fine
Behind enemy lines
But the reasoning's wrong

You won't be a hero
No matter what they say
Cause even if you lived
You were just being played

You know this game
BANG BANG
You just kill in their name
BANG BANG
You just kill in their fucking

NAME
Means nothing
It's empty
Blood money is your pay
If you lived through the day
You're a mercenary
You were never a soldier
Cause

Killing innocent
Should've equaled the death penalty

WAR
This is a
WAR

They will never let you
Be yourself again
All they do is change you
Into what they need
You won't have a name
Just a number
Ten thousand teenage
Killing machines

You know this game
BANG BANG
You just kill in their name
You're gonna loose one fucking
