

The Smashing Pumpkins, For Martha

Whenever I run
Whenever I run to you, lost one
It's never done
Just hanging on
The past has let me be
Returning as if dream
Shattered as belief

If you have to go, don't say goodbye
If you have to go, don't you cry
If you have to go, I will get by
Someday I'll follow you and see you on the other side

But for the grace of love
I'd will the meaning of
Heaven from above
But for the grace of love
I'd will the meaning of
Heaven from above

Your picture out of time
Left aching in my mind
Shadows kept alive

If you have to go, don't say goodbye
If you have to go, don't you cry
If you have to go, I will get by
I will follow you and see you on the other side

But for the grace of love
Who'd will the meaning of
Heaven from above
But for the grace of love
Who'd will the meaning of
Heaven from above

Long horses, we are born
Creatures more than torn
Mourning our way home
