

The Sol, Say Hello

Spread a little love, spread a litte love, say: hello /x2

You wanna walk around this town and feel like
I; not alone so much more.
People keep on passing by I try to see it all in all.
If bread and love's all we need give some more let love be the only reason.

Now it's a train-stopper, floor-filler,
The reason I feel like Steve Miller, bruised up not a killer.

Just say: hello

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
Spread a little love just say hello
/x4

If this the way that things go down we have to try,
To see it through, I'm with you 40 years or more since we were high
And touched the sky, mile high
If peace and love's all we need don't be shy
just make it happen, baby
Now it's the ego-booasting, blog using,
stronger by yourself new thing,
hype-up and we all sing..

Just say: hello

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
Spread a little love just say hello
/x4

Don't wanna go around playing games with you, I don't
Don't wanna go around playing games with you, I don't
Don't wanna go around playing games with you, I don't (spread a little love, spread a little love say hello)
Don't wanna go around playing games with you, I don't Say: helloooooo!

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
Spread a little love just say hello
/x6
