

The Starting Line, Thanks, Your The Best

Make a list top ten regrets
Most foolish things said
This is one time I let you go
A story im sure you and I both know feelings won't let go
I'm having trouble spitting out what's going through my head
How I feel today
The same as yesterday
I wonder anniversary meant everything
I can't stand to see our feelings fade away
Say hello now awkward pause and on your way to leaving me

You were the best thing I ever had
And I want that back
You were the best thing I ever ever had, I ever had Since were one good terms, thanks for everything
Another letter saved the one you wrote to me
Asking if I go with you on Horsham day
It's almost time to leave our anniversary
Keep in mind it's picture time my smiling wasn't staged but anyway

You were the best thing I ever had
And I want that back
You were the best thing I ever ever had, I ever had
Since we're on good terms, thanks for for all the memories thanks for everything
You were the best thing I ever had
And I want it back
You were the best thing I ever had
And I want it back once again
