

The Submarines, Clouds

It's not so far to go
But tonight I won't be coming home
I'll come here on my own
When our nights and days turned to months and years
And I forgot how to be alone
I forgot how to love
Oh, but don't cry my baby
Theres blue skies but for you
Even when the clouds roll in
I still want you near me
When I found my place
Here is this new room
Everything went quite clear
And I could feel again, and I missed you
The whole of me missed holding you
But I, I won't cry my baby
Theres blue skies but, for me
Even when the clouds roll in
I still want you near me
Oh I said I'm not in love
You made me count the ways
But I couldn't hope to be both cause and bone for pain
It breaks my heart to break your heart
I know that means I'm still in love
Oh, so don't cry my baby
theres blue skies but for you
Even when the clouds roll in
I still want you near me
I still want you near me
I still want you near me
Even when then clouds roll in
I still want you near me
