

The Swellers, Zac's Song (For Emily)

I don't even know you
But I know you're sad
Your friends told me so

You see, someone cares about you
And one is enough
To let the world know

Goodbyes don't mean a thing
All that matters is remembering
All the good times not just make you lie
Emily please don't cry

I don't even know you
But if you weren't here
It changes my life

To be one who tried to save you
But it's just too late
It would be alright

Goodbyes don't mean a thing
All that matters is remembering
All the good times not just make you lie
Emily please don't cry
Please don't cry
Please don't cry
Please don't cry

I don't even know you
But i know you're sad
Your friend told me so
