

The Tea Party, Can You See My Tears

Where did you go to
It's not what you told me
You'd think with the lies it would change
And everyone else they're
Running in circles
Trying so hard not to change
You take it with the bad
You take it with the good
I'd give it all to you if I knew that I could
So when I'm crying baby
Can you see my tears

Where did you go to
Its not what you told me
You'd think with the lies it would change
Everyone else they're
Running in circles
Walking around in a daze

Where did you go to
Its not what you told me
You'd think with the lies it would change
Every where else they're
Running in circles
Trying so hard not to change
And honey I'm amazed
I'm simply amazed
Yes I am

So when I'm crying baby
Can you see my tears

And watching the sunrise
Deep in my soul
I felt it in your eyes
I'd have to be a fool
Not to realise
I strain to see
Through your clouds of calamity
If not for me
You'd be living a reality

So when I'm crying, baby
Can you see my tears
