

THE VAMPS, Girls On Tv

Dear diary I want to make a new entry
oh you wouldn't believe me what began today
well she called me, oh that girl from the party and I thought she should be on TV when I first saw her face she said alright, what are you doing till daylight
so I chanced it I said dancing with you.

She got legs like Beyoncé, give me the eye like Rihanna
and I wanna put her on my camera cause she drive me crazy, crazy, crazy.
Don't need no game show or a Hollywood movie pop video,
Cause as long as she's next to me I got all the girls on TV.

Dear diary, we finished dinner early and the way that she kissed me sent us on our way,
She danced like a professional all night
and the stars were her spotlight
the city became her stage.
And I said so can I buy a ticket to your show
she said front row if I go home with you

She got legs like Beyoncé, give me the eye like Rihanna
and I wanna put her on my camera cause she drives me crazy, crazy, crazy.
Don't need no game show or a Hollywood movie pop video,
Cause as long as she's next to me I got all the girls on TV.

(oh na na na)

She like a star on a silver screen, now I am punching above my weight
we're from different sides of the street
and I know, I know, I know

(oh na na na)

still a little mysterious
why she taking me seriously?

(oh na na na)
