

The W's, J.P.

Hey, hey you, looks like you've got lots of time
Staying up real late, sleeping all day
Look at you playing your video games
Drinking slurpees out side the Circle K, and skating your life away

Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
The real world is passing you by, just you wait and see
High school is over now, soon you will be old and crusty like me

Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
This is not some job flipping nasty burgers at the local drive through Sitting around all day dreaming of The W's

Becoming famous rock stars
I'll be working 9 to 5 jealous of you, yeah jealous of you
Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
Hey, hey you, why don't you just grow up
