

The Weeknd, Love to Lay

[Verse 1]

It has begun again, my friend
In this room, we are nothing but strangers in a bed
You made me fall again, my friend
How can I forget when you said love was just pretend?

[Pre-Chorus]

Well I told her I've been thinkin' 'bout her lately
But she told me that to love her is so crazy

[Chorus]

'Cause she loves to lay
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, I'm all to blame
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay
Know I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, it's all a game
I learned the hard way

[Verse 2]

It has begun again, my friend
In your heart, we are nothing but strangers in the end

[Pre-Chorus]

Then I told her I've been thinkin' 'bout her lately
But she told me that to love her is so crazy

[Chorus]

'Cause she loves to lay
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, I'm all to blame
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay
Know I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, it's all a game
I learned the hard way

[Bridge]

I feel there's someone else
Worth your time, from the start
He's just one call away
From your mind, and your heart
It has begun, begun
Again, again, my friend, hey!

[Chorus]

'Cause she loves to lay
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, I'm all to blame
I learned the hard way
She loves to lay
Know I learned the hard way
She loves to lay, it's all a game
I learned the hard way
