The Who, Sister Disco

As I walked through that hospital door I was sewn up like a coat I got a smile from the bite of the wind Watched the fresh fall of snow

I knew then that my life took a turn I felt strong and secure And with adhesive tape over my nose I felt almost demure

Goodbye Sister Disco With your flashing trash lamps Goodbye Sister Disco And to your clubs and your tramps

Goodbye Sister Disco My dancing's left you behind Goodbye, now you're solo Black plastic; deaf, dumb and blind

Bye, goodbye Sister Disco, Now I go I go where the music where the music fits my soul And I, I will never let go, I'll never let go 'Til the echo of the street fight has dissolved

I will choose nightmares and cold stormy seas I will take over your grief and disease I'll stay beside you and comfort your soul When you are lonely and broken and old

Now I walk with a man in my face Ooh, a woman in my hair I've got you all lookin' out though my eyes My feet are a prayer

Goodbye Sister Disco With your flashing trash lamps Goodbye Sister Disco And to your clubs and your tramps

Goodbye Sister Disco My dancing's left you behind Goodbye, now you're solo Black plastic; deaf, dumb and blind