

The Wilkinsons, Feel

(Jeff Lysczyn/ Michael Hunter Ochs)

Love's not supposed
To make you numb
It's okay to have a little fun
The more you contemplate
The more you mess with fate
Just give in and let go
One kiss and you'll know

Whoa
It's like stickin' out your tongue
To catch the raindrops
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Whoa
It's when you keep on dancin'
Way after the song stops
Na-na-na-na-na
It's not rational, it's magical
How do you know if love is real
You've got to feel
Feel, feel, feel

Forget everything you know
Let your emotions take control
Love is in the air
Can't see it but it's there
Just reach out and have faith
One touch is all it takes

Whoa
It's like stickin' our your tongue
To catch the raindrops
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Whoa
It's when you keep on dancin'
Way after the song stops
Whoa it's like stayin' up all night
To watch the sunrise
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Whoa
It's when you laugh so hard
That brings tears to your eyes
Na-na-na-na-na
Not rational, it's magical
How do you know if love is real
You've got to feel
