

Therion, Bring Her Home

[HELENA]

Hear my prayer, thee almighty God
For my mother - bring her home
Like an angel heaven-bound
So that she may find thy side

[PRIEST]

Don't sound so sad my child
No sorrow will prevail
Sophia knows every word
Be sure of this my child
I have to leave you now
No wish will be left unheard

[SETH]

What of darkness, Nazarene
Did it haunt your heart?

[HELENA]

Who may he be?
Hope in doubt and fear
Golden atmosphere
And a cry so divine

[SETH]

I am the real Messiah, born where Christ did fall
Soon bringing eyes to the blind
Humanity refined, I will unite them all
Become to the truth for all mankind

[JOHANNA]

Sister of mine - prophets may be false
Beware what you hear and see
Tolling bells I find no singing in the chimes

[HELENA]

Join me sister as I pray:
Hear my prayer thee almighty God
For our mother - bring her home
