

Thompson Twins, Dancing In Your Shoes

Your life is a circus
And your mind is just a mess
But you've come too far now
To wind up being second best
So you put on your high-heels
And you strut to the edge
And you say if you want me
You'll have to take me dead

Who knows what I'd do
If I was dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
If it was me
Instead of you
If I was really
Dancin' in those shoes

And all the chorus girls
They're so quick to lay the blame
They scream HA HA HA HA!
We always knew he was insane

Who knows what I'd do
If I was dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
If it was me
Instead of you
If I was really
Dancin' in your shoes

Well the first to leave was sympathy
And she wasn't even cryin'
And when I looked into her eyes
I saw your face instead of mine

Who knows what I'd do
If I was dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
If it was me
Instead of you
If I was really
Dancin' in your shoes

I'm dancing
I'm dancing
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
I'm dancing
I'm dancing
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
Who knows what I'd do
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
I'm dancing
I'm dancing
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
Yeah, going dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
I'm dancing
I'm dancing

Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
I'm dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
Dancin' in your shoes
Who knows what I'd do
Yeah, goin' dancin' in your shoes
If it was me
Instead of you
If I was really
Dancin' in those shoes
