

Thornbridge, Revelation

Land in shadows
See humanity wasting away
There's something dying in me
Desert of ashes, no pale glowing light
Dark infinity

We will leave the darkness behind
Following the light
We will fear the future beyond
The everlasting night

And through the sacred door
You'll walk alone
And you will slump
Before the master's throne

Wasted time
You will leave me alone
When the demons call
There's no sign
All is dead and sky will fall

Souls are rising
Into the hall of fate
Pray for saving
Your chance to honor life is gone
The final day for everyone
The revelation has begun

Crying faces on my way
Through the ruins of life
There is no hope in my mind
Unholy demons awaken in me
Dark infinity

Justice for the unbelievers
Hear your requiem

Sanctified in the lake of life
With the devils hand inside
