

Three Days Grace, Champion

Mind of a
Soul of a
Heart of a champion
Mind of a
Soul of a
Heart of a champion

I was born to run
No waiting for the starting gun
There's no way I'm giving up
Cause it's just not in my blood

I got fire from the stone
Blood from the ice
You don't know about the sacrifice
To get where I am
To do what I've done
I've got the heart of a champion
Fire from the stone
Blood from the ice
You don't know about the sacrifice
To get where I am
To do what I've done
I've got the heart of a
Heart of a champion

Mind of a

Heart of a champion
Mind of a
Soul of a
Heart of a champion

I know what it takes
Cause I learned the hardest way
I think I'm starting to like the pain
Of getting knocked down and up again

I got fire from the stone
Blood from the ice
You don't know about the sacrifice
To get where I am
To do what I've done
I got the heart of a champion
Fire from the stone
Blood from the ice
You don't know about the sacrifice
To get where I am
to lose what I've won
I got the heart of a
Heart of a champion

Mind of a
Soul of a
Heart of a champion
Mind of a

Heart of a champion
(Mind of a

I got fire from the stone
Blood from the ice

You don't know about the sacrifice
To get where I am
To do what I've done
I've got the heart of a champion
