Three Doors Down, Sarah yellin

She says, Ive got something to say She knows what she says well change everything She led through to many sleepless nights Shes crying, shes crying, shes crying Mother that man took my soul away Father how could you ever treat me this way Brother dont let him do this again This time its over Im gonna make it end Now its over and the old man is in Lying on the ground bullet in his head She stood at the foot of the guilty bed last night She held what she said for the rest of her life She did all what see said she is gonna do Shes through, shes through, yeah Mother that man took my soul away Father how could you ever treat me this way Brother dont let him do this again This time its over Im gonna make it end Now its over and the old man is in Lying on the ground bullet in his head Theres a bullet in your head I kept falling down, I kept falling down I kept crying out, I kept crying out I keep falling down, I keep falling down Im ready, Im ready, Im ready Now its over, this is what she said Hes lying on the ground bullet in his head