Tiga, 3 Weeks

Well, it's been..

3 weeks since we said goodbye nd now how am i hard, as i try supposed to last a whole lifetime the days are fine i keep my mind occupied and satisfied i keep my eyes on the consolation prize but in the nigth i lose the fight i toss and turn while my fears unite my teeth grind everytime the visions come, i wish i was blind they're teasing me, endlessly with a dream that was, but can never be

now it's been 3 since i wrote this song now the future's wrong seems way too long i thank the stars you taught me to be strong... now, i walk the line your hand in mine your still my guide, side by side i tell myself
it's just a matter of time and now my life keeps movin by and now i hear your voice in mine i still smile most of the time at memories, lives intertwined you're keeping me company with a love that was, and will always be
