

Tim And Eric, Together Forever

tim:

here we are,
two fools alone together at odds it seems forever for the sake of greed and pride and here we go our futures in the balance and all these years apart and now both of our worlds collide eric:

but if you look me in the eye and say that we our done forever i will gladly walk away

both:

together forever
let me hear you right now we'll enter to the future cause the futures right now
together forever
cause i promise you now i'm never gunna leave you never gunna let you down down...down...down

never gunna let you
