

Tina Ann, Too Late (Jj Flores Radio Remix)

Too late baby,

I will no longer try
To live this compromise...
You know that I've had my fill
I'm not here to please you

Still no matter what you say,
nothing you can do will make me stay
Still no matter what you do,
now you know that I'm through with you

'Cause I've weathered storms you've put me through...
And now I've turned to walk away and leave this all behind

'Cause every time we try to work it out,
Nothing was changed, things stay the same.
This time I don't wanna talk it over,
Cause... it's too late baby, too late baby...

Time for you to realize
I will not play the fool that cries.
You don't seem to understand,
that I don't want you as my man.

I gave you just half a chance,
knowing that we would never last.
I gave you all that I could,
now I see that I never should.

'Cause I've weathered storms you've put me through...
And now I've turned to walk away and leave this all behind

'Cause every time we try to work it out,
Nothing was changed, things stay the same.
This time I don't wanna talk it over,
Cause... it's too late baby, too late baby...

'Cause every time we try to work it out,
Nothing was changed, things stay the same.
This time I don't wanna talk it over,
Cause... it's too late baby, too late baby...

Ooohhhhhhhh....
Ooohhhhhhhh....

I cant stay here any longer
And watch as my heart breaks.
Cuz baby now im even stronger,
cuz its too late baby, now its too late.

I can't stay here any longer
And watch as my heart breaks.
Cuz baby now I'm even stronger,
cuz it's too late, too late, you're too late...

'Cause every time we try to work it out,
Nothing was changed, things stay the same.
This time I don't wanna talk it over,
Cause... it's too late baby, too late baby...

'Cause every time we try to work it out,
Nothing was changed, things stay the same.
This time I don't wanna talk it over,

Cause... it's too late baby, too late baby...
