

Tina Turner, Complicated Disaster

She knows about me
I heard about your secret life
She thinks that you're a family man
You got two babies and a wife

I never thought you'd sink this love
Two many lovers in this wrong
I'm sufocating

And now you're standing in front of me
Begging me not to leave
Complicated disaster
And as I struggle to understand
What became of the man who
Promised me ever after

I turn away but I can't run
You're all that I remember

It's been three hours
Since she shared her story in this room
She seems like such a gentle girl
You came and left her much too soon

She said it lasted just six months

The fear of being completely wrong
Has taken over

And now you're standing in front of me
Begging me not to leave
Complicated disaster
And as I struggle to understand
What became of the man who
Promised me ever after

I turn away but I can't run
You're all that I remember

All the plans we were making
Just got washed away with the tears
I'm drowning
But you can't save me
This time

Complicated disaster

And now you're standing in front of me
Begging me not to leave
Complicated disaster
And as I struggle to understand
What became of the man who
