

Tokio Hotel, Kings of Suburbia

We are young
With open eyes
Blinded by
The citylights
Lose Control
To feel alive
Just another day
In paradise
Diamond Sky
Diamond Sky
You and I
You and I
We are the
Kings and Queens
Of suburbia
Somewhere in time
We don't know where
We are Come on
We are who we are Come on
Come on
Have you heard
The silent scream
Boys and girls
Born to be free
Love is our gasoline
Livin' on this endless dream
God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change
Courage to change the Things I can and wisdom to know the difference
Join me under diamond skies
everything will be alright
