

Tokyo Police Club, Hot Tonight

Standing in the world with the stipe outside I don't keep my sneakers why?
all I really guide is the name in the park to get me to another line and I wonder what you're doing tonight

I'll burn the house down
And I'll leave it behind
I didn't need the money,
But the money was nice
I need a countdown when the fire is high Sitting on the court and it's hot tonight
It's hot tonight,
It's hot tonight,

No too many smile on the of the street...
