Don't you cry for you and I
Don't know why the reasons why
Why you had to spread your wings
Cos changes are the hardest things
Out of sight and out of mind
Out of my hand and out of my life
The leaves I found were rustic brown
Shovelled up and trampled down

I'm all right Jack, I'm on the right track
So don't go cos I'll be right back
Cos I'm on the right track
So I'll keep sailing home

Don't you cry for you and I
I don't know why the reasons why
Why you had to spread your wings
Cos changes are the hardest things

I'm all right Jack, I'm on the right track
So don't go cos I'll be right back
Cos I'm on the right track
Yeah I'm all right Jack, I'm on the right track
So don't go cos I'll be right back
Cos I'm on the right track

Now I'm on the right track now (on the right track now)
On the right track now (on the right track now)
On the right track now (on the right track now)
On the right track now (on the right track now)
On the right track now (on the right track now)
On the right track now (on the right track now)
