Tori Amos, Posse Bonus

This is your posse bonus, this is your extra This is your posse bonus, because I like you

This is your posse bonus this is your extra This is your posse bonus 'cause I like you

Because I like you, 'cause I like you, Porcupine Burrow your way to freedom

This is your posse bonus, this is your extra This is your posse bonus 'cause I like you

Eat your greens, feed your head Mind the doubts they harvest them Broccoli, feed your head Their ideas are fried in fat

This is your posse bonus, this is your extra This is your posse bonus 'cause I like you

Because I like you, 'cause I like you, Porcupine Burrow your way to freedom

You say you're not bothered to lie beneath pigs Then go on Laura, here's a flower for your grave

This is your posse bonus, this is your extra This is your posse bonus 'cause I like you I like you I like you
